Stanwick Finds the Magic Words

The small downtown section of Baskerville was unusually busy that Saturday morning. After (A) look through several other stores, Thomas P. Stanwick walked into the Baskerville Bookshop. He was looking for a birthday present for the younger son of his friend, Inspector Matt Walker. Tim Walker was about to turn six.

Weaving his way through the other customers, Stanwick spotted a toy he knew Tim would love: a bright red fire truck. Scooping it up, Stanwick started for the checkout counter and then stopped with a sudden realization. He had accidentally left his wallet at home.

With a sigh of annoyance, Stanwick turned to put the truck back. As he did, he saw a sign near a collection of puzzle books.

[15~16] 다음 글을 읽고, 물음에 답해 보시다.

The media makes billions of dollars from the advertising they sell. We buy what we see on TV, what our favorite celebrities promote and what is considered acceptable by society based on the styles that the media has imposed on us. We want to be accepted by our peers and neighbors. We want to be loved and be successful. The media creates the ideal image of beautiful men and women and tells us the characteristics of a successful person. We can see it in movies and on TV. It's a subliminal way to tell us that if we are not like them, we are not cool, so it's time to buy the stuff they buy and look like them.

15. 위 글의 빈칸에 들어갈 제목으로 알맞은 것은?

- ① Media Affects the Prices of Products
- ② What Media Can Do in Our Lives
- ③ Media Influences on Buying Decisions

Script

1. W: There are so many people here at the train station.
M: Right. It's really crowded.
W: But, is your friend, Jacob, supposed to arrive around 1 p.m.?
M: Yes, and the train has just arrived. People are coming out now. But who do you think is Jacob? Can you guess?
W: Let me see. He's tall, fat, and wearing red glasses?
M: How do you know that?
W: I saw his picture in your cell phone before.

2. M: Hi, Sujin. Do you like riddles?

W: Sure. I like challenging riddles.
M: Well, how about this one? This thing runs but cannot walk, sometimes sings but never talks. Lacks arms, has hands; lacks a head but has a face. What is it?
W: hmmm... I bet it's a clock.
M: You're so smart.

3. W: Minsu, guess what? Our club was on the local newspaper.
M: You didn't know that? I thought you already knew it.
W: I was totally unaware. Tell me what happened.
M: Last Saturday, while you went on a trip with your family, a newspaper reporter asked us for an interview. They visited us, asked some questions about club activities, and took some photos of our office.
W: Amazing! I missed such a good opportunity!
