16. 다음 글에서 red wolf에 대한 내용으로 언급되지 않은 것은?

There are at least two species of wolves. The wolf we usually see in the zoo is a gray wolf. There is another kind of wolf, a red wolf. It has a brownish coat with black on its back. It gets its name because the backs of its ears, head, and legs often have reddish fur. Having a small body, the red wolf weighs around 20 kilograms on average. It hunts small animals such as rabbits and small deer.

18. 다음 글의 제목으로 가장 적절한 것은?

When you speak, sing, or shout, the sound of your voice moves through the air. The sound goes to other people, and they hear it. Sound moves very fast. How does sound move through the air? The air is made of billions of molecules. The molecules are very small, so you cannot see them. Your voice pushes the molecules. The molecules move like waves in the ocean. And the movements of the molecules are called sound waves. The sound waves from loud sounds go far. The sound waves from quiet sounds do not.

* molecule : 분자

① What Is a Wave?
② How Sound Moves
③ What Is Air Made of?
④ Why the Ocean Is Noisy
⑤ How to Control Your Voice

19. 다음 글의 내용에 따라 (A)~(C)를 일어난 순서대로 배열한 것은?

It was my first day in Seoul. In the morning, I visited a beautiful palace, Changdeokgung. I had booked the tour because the palace was accessible only on a guided tour. In the afternoon, I took a trip to Namdaemun Market. I visited a gift shop and bought some traditional Korean fans for my family. After dinner, I went to Cheonggyecheon for a walk. I enjoyed the amazing views of the city at night.

21. 다음 글에서 밑줄 친 말의 의미로 가장 적절한 것은?

What are the differences between report and story, and how can a writer use them to his or her advantage? A writer needs to know the differences because readers read for two reasons : information and experience. Reports communicate information. Stories create experience. Reports transfer knowledge. Stories transport the reader, crossing boundaries of time, space, and imagination. The report points us there. The story puts us there. By combining story and report, a writer can speak to both our hearts and our heads.

① 지식을 전달한다.
② 최신 정보를 제공한다.

④ 독서에 흥미를 갖게 한다.
⑤ 자신의 장점을 알게 해 준다.

22. 다음 편지를 쓴 목적으로 가장 적절한 것은?

Dear Mayor,

I am writing about a problem in this community. My dog Rocky is overweight. I live in an apartment. There is a park nearby, but dogs are not allowed. There is no field for Rocky to exercise in. Many dog owners in my community have the same problem.

My goal is to help all dogs in this community. I believe a dog park would be a great way to keep dogs healthy. It would be a beautiful addition to our town, too.

Thank you for your consideration on this important issue. I hope that you will be able to help.

Sincerely,
Joy North

24. 다음 글의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것은?

Kite making competitions are held every year around the world. People bring their own kites to be judged. Kites are evaluated on four characteristics. The highest score in each category is ten points. "Flight" measures how well the kite flies. The "Visual" category is a measure of how good the kite looks. "Construction" refers to how neatly and carefully the kite was made, and "Structure" is a measure of how strong the kite is. The table below shows the results of a 2014 competition. In this competition, the kite, Sea Horses won first prize.

Top 3 Winners in the 2014 Kite Making Competition

Category \ Kite	Sea Horses	Night Train	Penguin DJ

25. 다음 글에 나타난 글쓴이의 주장으로 가장 적절한 것은?

We say we want our lives to be better. We wish and pray for change. But nothing changes. What are we doing wrong? Most of us spend a lot of time thinking about what is wrong with our lives. And then we wait for someone to give us the answer. Or we hope something outside of ourselves will magically happen in order for us to be happy and life to be good. We keep doing what we have always done, hoping for change. But, without action, nothing can ever change. If you want your life to be better, it's quite simple : Take action.

28. 다음 글의 요지로 가장 적절한 것은?

Items that have been stored in your house for more than a year are merely taking up space. They only make it more difficult to find the things you need. So what can you do with all those "way too good to throw away" items? There are many wonderful non-profit organizations that can provide a way to put those annoying items to good use. This will allow you the pleasure of knowing your unused items are going to be used. And that is pretty awesome.

① 쓰지 않는 물건은 기부하는 것이 좋다.
② 집안 공간을 효율적으로 활용해야 한다.

⑤ 물건을 사용한 후에는 제자리에 두어야 한다.

29. 다음 글의 교훈으로 가장 적절한 것은?

There once was a king who was defeated in a battle. While he was taking shelter in a cave from his enemy, he saw a spider. It was trying to make a spider web. As it climbed up, a thread in its web broke and it fell down. But it did not give up. It tried to climb again and again. Finally, the spider successfully completed the web. The king thought, "If a small spider can face failure so bravely, why should I give up?" Then, he collected his soldiers and fought against his enemy again and again. Finally, he regained his kingdom.

* spider web : 거미줄

30. 주어진 글 다음에 이어질 글의 순서로 가장 적절한 것은?

> Farming began a very long time ago. Before farming, people had to search for food to eat. They ate wild animals and plants.

(A) So, people learned to farm. Animals and plants were kept on farms. People no longer had to move to find food. This allowed them to stay in one place.

(B) In that place, they built villages. The towns were built close to rivers because the animals and plants needed water to keep growing.

(C) But, it was hard to find enough food. They had to travel a lot to find more food. This meant a lot of moving around.

① (A) – (C) – (B)　② (B) – (A) – (C)

31. 다음 글에서 Morning Glory Pool이 오염된 이유로 가장 적절한 것은?

> The Morning Glory Pool is a hot spring in Yellowstone National Park. It was named for its beautiful blue color which was similar to the color of the morning glory flower. This popular tourist attraction, however, has been polluted by visitors who threw coins into the pool. Each coin has blocked the small holes in the ground which give the pool its heat. The temperature of the hot spring dropped and different kinds of bacteria began working. It has created a red and yellow ring around the blue center. "Good luck" coins thrown into the hot spring have ruined one of nature's wonders.
