A Noisy Neighbor

I was resting on my couch after a long day. #1[Helping/To help] needy people all day #2[is/are] not easy, but it gives me joy. Suddenly, the terrible noise from the apartment above started again. I #3[have heard/had heard] #4[that/what] some #5[thoughtful/thoughtless], #6[considerate/inconsiderate] mothers let their children #7[ride/to ride] bicycles and skateboards inside their homes these days, and I imagined what was going on up there. I picked up the intercom #8[call/to call] the apartment manager again. "May I help you?" he said. His voice seemed #9[patient/impatient]. "Is this about the noise upstairs again? Do you want me #10[telling/to tell] her #11[being/to be] quiet?" I hung up and waited.

In a moment, my intercom rang, and the apartment manager said, "The woman upstairs says she's being very #12[careful/careless] about the noise, and she says she's sorry." He hung up.

Sorry? Wasn't the #13[annoying/annoyed] sound the same as before, and why was she being so #14[considerate/inconsiderate]? Since I was determined #15[ending/to end] the matter once and for all, I grabbed the intercom again and #16[asking/asked] him #17[connecting/to connect] me to Apartment 909.

After #18[many/much] rings, a young woman's voice answered. I spoke #19[strong/strongly], "Listen, I live downstairs - #20 [fortunately/unfortunately] right below you - and I've had just about enough of your #21 [rudeness/politeness]. There #22[is/are] do's and don'ts when we live in an apartment, #23 [isn't/aren't] there? The noise from your apartment #24[has pushed/had pushed] me to the point #25[which/where] I'm #26[most/almost] ill."

"Look," responded the young woman, "if I #27 [had/had had] the ability #28[me/myself], I'd have been quieter. Can't I just move around normally in my own home? You've gone way too far with this, and I'm becoming #29[nervous/nervously] since you complain #30[most/almost] every day." Her voice became #31[calm/desperate]. "What do you want me #32[doing/to do]?"

I stood up #33[a few/a little] straighter, and I held the intercom #34[much/even/very/a lot/still/far] more tightly. I made my voice #35 [calm and polite/calmly and politely]. "I want #36 [what/that/how] any #37[reasonable/unreasonable] person would want," I said. "For you #38[being/to be] understanding and #39 [considerate/considerable]. I wish you'd been quieter, that's all."

Since I was determined to end the matter once and for all, I grabbed the intercom again and asked him to connect me to Apartment 909.

Her voice became desperate. “What do you want me to do?”

“I want what any reasonable person would want,” I said.

I spoke strongly, “Listen, I live downstairs – unfortunately right below you – and I’ve had just about enough of your rudeness. ❶ There are do’s and don’ts when we live in an apartment, aren’t there? The noise from your apartment has pushed me to the point where I’m almost ill.” ❷ “Look,” responded the young woman, “if I had had the ability myself, I’d have been quieter. ❸ Can’t I just move around normally in my own home? You’ve gone way too far with this, and I’m becoming nervous since you complain almost every day.” ❹ I stood up a little straighter, and I held the intercom even more tightly. I made my voice calm and polite. ❺ “For you to be understanding and considerate. I wish you’d been quieter, that’s all.” ❻

Yet the wisdom that comes with age told me that the angrier I become, the more I needed to calm myself down and act carefully.

I firmly put the phone down. How shameless! ❶ I couldn’t stop thinking about her rudeness. ❷ Suddenly, I remembered a pair of slippers that I had received as a present but had not used. ❸ A present can be a good way to communicate. ❹ The slippers could represent my suffering and at the same time serve as a constant reminder to soften the sound of her steps. ❺ I’d teach her in this quiet way how to live with others as a considerate neighbor. ❻

나는 긴 하루를 보내고 소파에서 쉬고 있었다. 하루 종일 어려운 사람을 돕는 것이 쉬운 일은 아니지만 내게 기쁨을 준다. 갑자기 아파트 위층에서 끔찍한 소음이 다시 시작되었다. 나는 요새 일부 몰지각하고 배려심 부족한 어머니들이 집안에서 아이들에게 자전거와 스케이트보드를 타게 한다는 것을 들은 적이 있는데, 우리 வீ집에서 무슨 일이 벌어지고 있는지를 상상해 보았다. 나는 아파트 관리자와 통화하기 위해 인터컴 수화기를 들었다. "무엇을 도와드릴까요?" 관리자가 말했다. 그의 목소리는 조급해 보였다. "또 위층 소음에 대한 것인가요? 제가 그녀에게 조용히 해달라고 말해주길 원하시죠?" 나는 수화기를 내려놓고 기다렸다.

곧 인터컴이 울렸고, 아파트 관리자가 "위층 여성 본인은 소음에 매우 주의를 기울이고 있다고 이야기하네요. 그리고 미안하다고 합니다."라고 말했다. 그는 전화를 끊었다.
