

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

1번 변형문제

1. Which of the underlined parts is grammatically incorrect?¹

Let's face a difficult and painful truth: most of us don't know ① how to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life. This fact is obvious, but we resist ② seeing it and facing it. We don't want to see our limitations. We don't want to face our shortcomings because that means we'll have to do something about them. We'll have to work at getting and learning new information. We'll have to ask for help. We are not skillful when it comes to ③ know how to live a balanced and satisfying life. Our unreasonable expectations create a false pride that prohibits us from letting others ④ know that we do not have the answers — that we need help. Some of us try to become wantless. When our false pride is in charge, ignorance becomes something ⑤ of which to be ashamed . Being ignorant doesn't fit with our self-image, so we deny it. We become more concerned with "saving face rather than saving our behinds."

2. Which is the main topic of the passage ?²

Let's face a difficult and painful truth: most of us don't know how to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life. This fact is obvious, but we resist seeing it and facing it. We don't want to see our limitations. We don't want to face our shortcomings because that means we'll have to do something about them. We'll have to work at getting and learning new information. We'll have to ask for help. We are not skillful when it comes to knowing how to live a balanced and satisfying life. Our unreasonable expectations create a false pride that prohibits us from letting others know that we do not have the answers — that we need help. Some of us try to become wantless. When our false pride is in charge, ignorance becomes something of which to be ashamed . Being ignorant doesn't fit with our self-image, so we deny it. We become more concerned with "saving face rather than saving our behinds."

- ① Let's face our limitations and our shortcomings
- ② Necessity of knowing ignorance and
- ③ The reason to live a balanced and satisfying life
- ④ How to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life
- ⑤ Tendency to deny and avoid ignorance

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

3. Which of the following is suitable for the blank?³

Let's face a difficult and painful truth: most of us don't know how to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life. This fact is obvious, but we resist seeing it and facing it. We don't want to see our limitations. We don't want to face our shortcomings because that means we'll have to do something about them. We'll have to work at getting and learning new information. We'll have to ask for help. We are not skillful when it comes to knowing how to live a balanced and satisfying life. Our unreasonable expectations create a false pride that prohibits us from letting others know that we do not have the answers — that we need help. Some of us try to become wantless. When our false pride is in charge, ignorance becomes something of which to be ashamed. Being ignorant doesn't fit with our self-image, so we deny it. We become more concerned with “_____ rather than saving our behinds.”

- ① making belief
- ② gaining fame
- ③ saving face
- ④ pretending to know
- ⑤ losing face

4. Which of the underlined is NOT suitable in the context?⁴

Let's face a difficult and painful truth: most of us don't know how to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life. This fact is obvious, but we resist seeing it and facing it. We don't want to see our ① limitations. We don't want to face our ② shortcomings because that means we'll have to do something about them. We'll have to work at getting and learning new information. We'll have to ask for help. We are not skillful when it comes to knowing how to live a balanced and satisfying life. Our ③ reasonable expectations create a false pride that prohibits us from letting others know that we do not have the answers — that we need help. Some of us try to become ④ wantless. When our false pride is in charge, ignorance becomes something of which to be ashamed. Being ignorant doesn't fit with our self-image, so we deny it. We become more concerned with “⑤ saving face rather than saving our behinds.”

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

5. Which of the following is suitable for the blank?⁵

Let's face a difficult and painful truth: most of us don't know how to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life. This fact is obvious, but we resist seeing it and facing it. We don't want to see our limitations. We don't want to face our shortcomings because that means we'll have to do something about them. We'll have to work at getting and learning new information. We'll have to ask for help. We are not skillful when it comes to knowing how to live a balanced and satisfying life. Our unreasonable expectations create a false pride that prohibits us from letting others know that we do not have the answers — that we need help. Some of us try to become wantless. When our false pride is in charge, _____ . Being ignorant doesn't fit with our self-image, so we deny it. We become more concerned with "saving face rather than saving our behinds."

- ① knowledge is necessary to keep balanced life
- ② ignorance is advantage of which to be proud
- ③ knowing is something of which to be blamed
- ④ ignorance becomes something of which to be ashamed
- ⑤ we have a tendency to do false behaviors

6. Where does the given sentence best fit?⁶

When our false pride is in charge, ignorance becomes something of which to be ashamed .

Let's face a difficult and painful truth: most of us don't know how to live an authentic, effective, healthy, and fulfilling life. This fact is obvious, but we resist seeing it and facing it. We don't want to see our limitations. ① We don't want to face our shortcomings because that means we'll have to do something about them. We'll have to work at getting and learning new information. We'll have to ask for help. ② We are not skillful when it comes to knowing how to live a balanced and satisfying life. ③ Our unreasonable expectations create a false pride that prohibits us from letting others know that we do not have the answers — that we need help. Some of us try to become wantless. ④ Being ignorant doesn't fit with our self-image, so we deny it. ⑤ We become more concerned with "saving face rather than saving our behinds."

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

2번 변형문제

7. Where does the given sentence best fit?⁷

These problems encourage thinking about alternative ways to prevent disease and promote health.

Traditional medical and public health approaches to illness and health are among the successes of modern science. ① However, society today is faced with the increasing incidence of various forms of poor health related to modern lifestyles. ② Contributing factors include a large sedentary population, high levels of psychological stress related to urban living, and contemporary work practices. ③ In addition, people with disabilities and chronic illness demand a transition from institutional care to care in society. ④ Lack of physical activity and stress have led to increased occurrence of certain diseases where medication is perhaps only reducing the symptoms rather than combating the true causes of illness. ⑤ Efforts to promote public health and well-being have thus become increasingly complex.

8. Which is the main topic of the passage ?⁸

Traditional medical and public health approaches to illness and health are among the successes of modern science. However, society today is faced with the increasing incidence of various forms of poor health related to modern lifestyles. Contributing factors include a large sedentary population, high levels of psychological stress related to urban living, and contemporary work practices. In addition, people with disabilities and chronic illness demand a transition from institutional care to care in society. These problems encourage thinking about alternative ways to prevent disease and promote health. Lack of physical activity and stress have led to increased occurrence of certain diseases where medication is perhaps only reducing the symptoms rather than combating the true causes of illness. Efforts to promote public health and well-being have thus become increasingly complex.

- ① The examples of successes of modern science
- ② Necessity of new approaches to diseases and health problem of modern times
- ③ Impact of modern lifestyles and psychological stress on public health
- ④ Efforts to promote public health and well-being
- ⑤ Importance of helping people with disabilities and chronic illness

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

9. What is the main idea of the passage ?⁹

Traditional medical and public health approaches to illness and health are among the successes of modern science. However, society today is faced with the increasing incidence of various forms of poor health related to modern lifestyles. Contributing factors include a large sedentary population, high levels of psychological stress related to urban living, and contemporary work practices. In addition, people with disabilities and chronic illness demand a transition from institutional care to care in society. These problems encourage thinking about alternative ways to prevent disease and promote health. Lack of physical activity and stress have led to increased occurrence of certain diseases where medication is perhaps only reducing the symptoms rather than combating the true causes of illness. Efforts to promote public health and well-being have thus become increasingly complex.

- ① 질병과 건강에 대한 전통 의학과 공중위생학의 접근 방식은 현대 과학에 중대한 영향을 주었다
- ② 현대 생활방식으로 인한 허약한 건강상태가 증가하고 있다
- ③ 전통 의학의 다양한 장점들을 계승할 필요가 있다.
- ④ 현대의 다양한 건강 문제에 대해 새로운 접근법이 필요하다
- ⑤ 장애인을 위한 정부차원의 지원이 필요하다

10. Which is the correct order of the three sentences after the given passage? ¹⁰

Traditional medical and public health approaches to illness and health are among the successes of modern science.

(A) In addition, people with disabilities and chronic illness demand a transition from institutional care to care in society. These problems encourage thinking about alternative ways to prevent disease and promote health.
(B) However, society today is faced with the increasing incidence of various forms of poor health related to modern lifestyles. Contributing factors include a large sedentary population, high levels of psychological stress related to urban living, and contemporary work practices.
(C) Lack of physical activity and stress have led to increased occurrence of certain diseases where medication is perhaps only reducing the symptoms rather than combating the true causes of illness. Efforts to promote public health and well-being have thus become increasingly complex.

- ① (A) - (C) - (B)
- ② (B) - (A) - (C)
- ③ (B) - (C) - (A)
- ④ (C) - (A) - (B)
- ⑤ (C)- (B)- (A)

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

11. Which of the following is most suitable to fill in the blanks (A) and (B)? ¹¹

Traditional medical and public health approaches to illness and health are among the successes of modern science. ____ (A) ____, society today is faced with the increasing incidence of various forms of poor health related to modern lifestyles. Contributing factors include a large sedentary population, high levels of psychological stress related to urban living, and contemporary work practices. ____ (B) ____, people with disabilities and chronic illness demand a transition from institutional care to care in society. These problems encourage thinking about alternative ways to prevent disease and promote health. Lack of physical activity and stress have led to increased occurrence of certain diseases where medication is perhaps only reducing the symptoms rather than combating the true causes of illness. Efforts to promote public health and well-being have thus become increasingly complex.

12. Which of the underlined parts is grammatically incorrect? ¹²

Traditional medical and public health approaches to illness and health are among the successes of modern science. However, society today is faced with the increasing incidence of various forms of poor health ① related to modern lifestyles. Contributing factors include a large sedentary population, high levels of psychological stress related to urban living, and contemporary work practices. In addition, people with disabilities and chronic illness ② demanding a transition from institutional care to care in society. These problems encourage thinking about alternative ways ③ to prevent disease and promote health. Lack of physical activity and stress have led to increased occurrence of certain diseases ④ where medication is perhaps only reducing the symptoms rather than combating the true causes of illness. Efforts to promote public health and well-being have thus become ⑤ increasingly complex.

- ① In fact – In brief
- ② However –For example
- ③ Similarly - In addition
- ④ Likewise – In brief
- ⑤ However - In addition

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

3번 변형문제

13. Choose the correct word for (A), (B), (C) respectively.¹³

Increasing commercialisation is the main cause of changing social structures. Most traditional rice growing communities organise their society and festivals around the annual cycle of rice growing. Farmers who are growing rice for profit rather than for lifestyle(A) is / are less inclined to spend resources such as time, money and rice to celebrate traditional religious beliefs. Traditional farmers see rice as a gift from the gods and the very support of life. Commercialisation breaks down this traditional culture bit by bit. Eventually, farmers adopt the same attitude as many farmers in industrialised nations (B) which/who see producing food simply as a means to make money, (C) lacks /lacking any religious significance. They come to see a successful rice crop as being the result of spending money on fertilizers, pesticides, machinery or irrigation — manipulating and controlling the ecosystem rather than working within its confines.

- ① are- who – lacks
- ② are- which-lacking
- ③ are- who –lacking
- ④ is – which –lacks
- ⑤ is –who – lacking

14. Which is the main topic of the passage ?¹⁴

Increasing commercialisation is the main cause of changing social structures. Most traditional rice growing communities organise their society and festivals around the annual cycle of rice growing. Farmers who are growing rice for profit rather than for lifestyle are less inclined to spend resources such as time, money and rice to celebrate traditional religious beliefs. Traditional farmers see rice as a gift from the gods and the very support of life. Commercialisation breaks down this traditional culture bit by bit. Eventually, farmers adopt the same attitude as many farmers in industrialised nations who see producing food simply as a means to make money, lacking any religious significance. They come to see a successful rice crop as being the result of spending money on fertilizers, pesticides, machinery or irrigation — manipulating and controlling the ecosystem rather than working within its confines.

- ① The advent of eco-friendly agriculture
- ② The change of agriculture caused by Increasing commercialisation
- ③ Impact of agriculture on modern society
- ④ The advent of eco-friendly agriculture
- ⑤ The main cause of changing social structures

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

15. Where does the given sentence best fit?¹⁵

Eventually, farmers adopt the same attitude as many farmers in industrialised nations who see producing food simply as a means to make money, lacking any religious significance. Increasing commercialisation is the main cause of changing social structures. ①Most traditional rice growing communities organise their society and festivals around the annual cycle of rice growing. ②Farmers who are growing rice for profit rather than for lifestyle are less inclined to spend resources such as time, money and rice to celebrate traditional religious beliefs. ③Traditional farmers see rice as a gift from the gods and the very support of life. ④ Commercialisation breaks down this traditional culture bit by bit. ⑤ They come to see a successful rice crop as being the result of spending money on fertilizers, pesticides, machinery or irrigation — manipulating and controlling the ecosystem rather than working within its confines.

16. What is the main idea of the passage ?¹⁶

Increasing commercialisation is the main cause of changing social structures. Most traditional rice growing communities organise their society and festivals around the annual cycle of rice growing. Farmers who are growing rice for profit rather than for lifestyle are less inclined to spend resources such as time, money and rice to celebrate traditional religious beliefs. Traditional farmers see rice as a gift from the gods and the very support of life. Commercialisation breaks down this traditional culture bit by bit. Eventually, farmers adopt the same attitude as many farmers in industrialised nations who see producing food simply as a means to make money, lacking any religious significance. They come to see a successful rice crop as being the result of spending money on fertilizers, pesticides, machinery or irrigation — manipulating and controlling the ecosystem rather than working within its confines.

- ① 전통적인 농업이 상업화로부터 보전되어야한다
- ② 성공적인 쌀 재배를 위해 더 많은 투자가 필요하다
- ③ 상업화로 인해 농부들의 태도가 변하고 있지만 자연에 순응하고 생태계 내에서 일해야 한다
- ④ 상업화로 인해 신성시하는 전통적인 농업문화가 점점 상업화되고 있다
- ⑤ 증가하는 상업화는 변화하는 사회 구조의 주된 원인이 되었다

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

17. Which of the following is suitable for the blank?¹⁷

Increasing commercialisation is the main cause of changing social structures. Most traditional rice growing communities organise their society and festivals around the annual cycle of rice growing. Farmers who are growing rice for profit rather than for lifestyle are less inclined to spend resources such as time, money and rice to celebrate traditional religious beliefs. Traditional farmers see rice as a gift from the gods and the very support of life. Commercialisation breaks down this traditional culture bit by bit. Eventually, farmers adopt the same attitude as many farmers in industrialised nations who _____, lacking any religious significance. They come to see a successful rice crop as being the result of spending money on fertilizers, pesticides, machinery or irrigation — manipulating and controlling the ecosystem rather than working within its confines.

- ① regard food supply as a means to live a happy life
- ② see producing food simply as a means to make money
- ③ think of farming as a way of living
- ④ see their efforts as a natural duty
- ⑤ regard producing food as a gift from the gods

18. Which is the correct order of the three sentences after the given passage? ¹⁸

Increasing commercialisation is the main cause of changing social structures. Most traditional rice growing communities organise their society and festivals around the annual cycle of rice growing.

(A) Commercialisation breaks down this traditional culture bit by bit. Eventually, farmers adopt the same attitude as many farmers in industrialised nations who see producing food simply as a means to make money, lacking any religious significance.

(B) Farmers who are growing rice for profit rather than for lifestyle are less inclined to spend resources such as time, money and rice to celebrate traditional religious beliefs. Traditional farmers see rice as a gift from the gods and the very support of life.

(C) They come to see a successful rice crop as being the result of spending money on fertilizers, pesticides, machinery or irrigation — manipulating and controlling the ecosystem rather than working within its confines.

- ① (A) - (C) - (B)
- ② (B) - (A) - (C)
- ③ (B) - (C) - (A)
- ④ (C) - (A) - (B)
- ⑤ (C) - (B) - (A)

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

4번 변형문제

19. Which of the following is suitable for the blank?

19

Sometimes new technology — even that encouraged by law — _____, and we are forced to face the unthought-of consequences of a seemingly good idea. In recent years, the increased use of crops like corn in the manufacture of biofuels intended to ease our dependence on foreign oil decreased the food supply and caused prices to rise. To avoid this problem, nonfood crops have increasingly been proposed for making second-generation green fuels. But biologists have warned that certain reeds and wild grasses known to naturalists as “invasive species” and to gardeners as “weeds” would have a high likelihood of taking over nearby fields, presenting serious threats to the ecology and economy of a region. Investors in the fast-growing worldwide biofuels industry naturally reject such horrible scenarios, but the risk is a real one.

- ① makes our lives happy
- ② has an negative effect on environment
- ③ treats various plants
- ④ improves our food supply
- ⑤ brings with it new risks

20. Choose the correct word for (A), (B), (C) respectively.²⁰

Sometimes new technology — even that encouraged by law — brings with it new risks, and we are forced to face the unthought-of consequences of a seemingly good idea. In recent years, the increased use of crops like corn in the manufacture of biofuels (A)intending / intended to ease our dependence on foreign oil decreased the food supply and caused prices to rise. To avoid this problem, nonfood crops have increasingly(B)proposed/ been proposed for making second-generation green fuels. But biologists have warned that certain reeds and wild grasses known to naturalists as “invasive species” and to gardeners as “weeds” would have a high likelihood of taking over nearby fields, (C) present /presenting serious threats to the ecology and economy of a region. Investors in the fast-growing worldwide biofuels industry naturally reject such horrible scenarios, but the risk is a real one.

- ① intended- been proposed- present
- ② intended- proposed- presenting
- ③ intended- been proposed- presenting
- ④ intending- proposed - present
- ⑤ intending –been proposed- presenting

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

21. Which is the main topic of the passage ? 21

Sometimes new technology — even that encouraged by law — brings with it new risks, and we are forced to face the unthought-of consequences of a seemingly good idea. In recent years, the increased use of crops like corn in the manufacture of biofuels intended to ease our dependence on foreign oil decreased the food supply and caused prices to rise. To avoid this problem, nonfood crops have increasingly been proposed for making second-generation green fuels. But biologists have warned that certain reeds and wild grasses known to naturalists as “invasive species” and to gardeners as “weeds” would have a high likelihood of taking over nearby fields, presenting serious threats to the ecology and economy of a region. Investors in the fast-growing worldwide biofuels industry naturally reject such horrible scenarios, but the risk is a real one.

- ① The problems and solution of new technology
- ② ways to preserve the environment by using invasive species
- ③ Necessity of developing second-generation green fuels
- ④ Influence of development of biofuels on environment
- ⑤ Necessity of nonfood crops as second-generation green fuels

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

5번 변형문제

22. Where does the given sentence best fit? 22

This is how we survived throughout evolution, and it makes a satisfying explanation for why we are so attracted to novel events or objects. The memories we need to solve a problem do not necessarily appear in a particular sequence. One reason for this is that we do not attend to our experiences in an organized way. ① The brain evolved to scan the world, not to attend to just one aspect of it. Each new scan may gather cues for memories. ② Anything that is not part of our former experience can be a danger or an opportunity. It is important to constantly examine the world for the new. ③ In fact, we look forward to these interruptions and discoveries, so we scan and remember. ④ If what we see is not in our memory — if it is novel — it gains special significance. ⑤ We identify the new by discovering that we don't remember it!

23. Which of the following is suitable for the blank? 23

The memories we need to solve a problem do not necessarily appear in a particular sequence. One reason for this is that we do not attend to our experiences in an organized way. The brain evolved to scan the world, not to attend to just one aspect of it. Each new scan may gather cues for memories. This is how we survived throughout evolution, and it makes a satisfying explanation for why we are so attracted to novel events or objects. Anything that is not part of our former experience can be a danger or an opportunity. It is important to constantly examine the world for the new. In fact, we look forward to these interruptions and discoveries, so we scan and remember.
_____ — if it is novel — it gains special significance. We identify the new by discovering that we don't remember it!

- ① If we try to see realistic factors
- ② If what we think is imaginary
- ③ If you have excessive bias
- ④ If what we see is not in our memory
- ⑤ If what we see can not be explained

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

24. Which is the main topic of the passage ? ²⁴

The memories we need to solve a problem do not necessarily appear in a particular sequence. One reason for this is that we do not attend to our experiences in an organized way. The brain evolved to scan the world, not to attend to just one aspect of it. Each new scan may gather cues for memories. This is how we survived throughout evolution, and it makes a satisfying explanation for why we are so attracted to novel events or objects. Anything that is not part of our former experience can be a danger or an opportunity. It is important to constantly examine the world for the new. In fact, we look forward to these interruptions and discoveries, so we scan and remember. If what we see is not in our memory — if it is novel — it gains special significance. We identify the new by discovering that we don't remember it!

- ① What makes our brain memorable
- ② The roles of brains and memories
- ③ The functions of brains for memory
- ④ The new are dangers or opportunities
- ⑤ The relations between new discovery and memories

6번 변형문제

25. Where does the given sentence best fit? ²⁵

As a result of the agricultural revolution, however, agriculturists, living in settled communities, found additional children beneficial in helping with chores.

The emergence of a primitive hunting technology involving simple tools was the first great technological advance. ①This was followed by agricultural developments that led to plant cultivation, which had far-reaching social consequences, since now food could be stored and refilled. ②Thus, population size was no longer partially controlled by the lack of food resources. ③ Because hunting and gathering societies required physical mobility, it was inefficient to have large numbers of children to take along in the search for food. ④Moreover, some members of agricultural societies were now free to engage in pursuits other than food gathering, resulting in a more elaborate social structure with a division of labor that allowed for occupational specialization. ⑤

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

26. Which is the main topic of the passage ?²⁶

The emergence of a primitive hunting technology involving simple tools was the first great technological advance. This was followed by agricultural developments that led to plant cultivation, which had far-reaching social consequences, since now food could be stored and refilled. Thus, population size was no longer partially controlled by the lack of food resources. Because hunting and gathering societies required physical mobility, it was inefficient to have large numbers of children to take along in the search for food. As a result of the agricultural revolution, however, agriculturists, living in settled communities, found additional children beneficial in helping with chores. Moreover, some members of agricultural societies were now free to engage in pursuits other than food gathering, resulting in a more elaborate social structure with a division of labor that allowed for occupational specialization.

- ① The history and development of agricultural societies
- ② Agricultural developments that led to far-reaching social consequences
- ③ The emergence of a primitive hunting technology
- ④ The advantage of agricultural revolution
- ⑤ The advent of agricultural societies

27 . Which of the following is most suitable to fill in the blanks (A) and (B)? ²⁷

The emergence of a primitive hunting technology involving simple tools was the first great technological advance. This was followed by agricultural developments that led to plant cultivation, which had far-reaching social consequences, since now food could be stored and refilled. ____ (A) ____, population size was no longer partially controlled by the lack of food resources. Because hunting and gathering societies required physical mobility, it was inefficient to have large numbers of children to take along in the search for food. As a result of the agricultural revolution, however, agriculturists, living in settled communities, found additional children beneficial in helping with chores. ____ (B) ____, some members of agricultural societies were now free to engage in pursuits other than food gathering, resulting in a more elaborate social structure with a division of labor that allowed for occupational

- ① On the other hand- For example
- ② On the other hand- In addition
- ③ Thus- Moreover
- ④ Thus-For example
- ⑤ In other words - Moreover

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

7번 변형문제

28. Which is the main topic of the passage ?²⁸

Growing up as “technology natives” has profoundly affected what young people expect from life and how they relate to it. The intensity and extent of exposure to technology has had a major impact on how people perceive work as well as when, where, and how it can be done. It permits a round-the-clock connection to others, but especially to work. As such, this round-the-clock connectivity removes the traditional restrictions of office hours and location. Technology encourages networks and a lack of boundaries that makes operating in hierarchies problematic and challenges traditional ways of doing and managing work. At first, this difference appears to be generational, but it is not solely that. It is the difference between those who view technology as a tool or a toy and those who see it as the way they interact with the world — a(n) extension of them or, as it has been said, their oxygen.

- ① What makes “technology natives” benefit
- ② Dark side of being “technology natives”
- ③ The difference of perception about technology natives
- ④ The intensity and extent of exposure to technology
- ⑤ The characteristics of growing up as “technology natives”

29. Which of the following is suitable for the blank?

29

Growing up as “technology natives” has profoundly affected what young people expect from life and how they relate to it. The intensity and extent of exposure to technology has had a major impact on how people perceive work as well as when, where, and how it can be done. It permits a round-the-clock connection to others, but especially to work. As such, this round-the-clock connectivity removes the traditional restrictions of office hours and location. Technology encourages networks and a lack of boundaries that makes operating in hierarchies problematic and challenges traditional ways of doing and managing work. At first, this difference appears to be generational, but it is not solely that. It is the difference between those who view technology as a tool or a toy and those who see it as _____ — a(n) extension of them or, as it has been said, their oxygen.

- ① the place where they should go ahead
- ② the way they interact with the world
- ③ the reason they should exist
- ④ how they should live with other people
- ⑤ a means they should do and manage work

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

30. Which is the correct order of the three sentences after the given passage? ³⁰

Growing up as “technology natives” has profoundly affected what young people expect from life and how they relate to it.

- (A) At first, this difference appears to be generational, but it is not solely that. It is the difference between those who view technology as a tool or a toy and those who see it as the way they interact with the world — a(n) extension of them or, as it has been said, their oxygen.
- (B) The intensity and extent of exposure to technology has had a major impact on how people perceive work as well as when, where, and how it can be done. It permits a round-the-clock connection to others, but especially to work.
- (C) As such, this round-the-clock connectivity removes the traditional restrictions of office hours and location. Technology encourages networks and a lack of boundaries that makes operating in hierarchies problematic and challenges traditional ways of doing and managing work.

- ① (A) - (C) - (B)
- ② (B) - (A) - (C)
- ③ (B) - (C) - (A)
- ④ (C) - (A) - (B)
- ⑤ (C)- (B)- (A)

8번 변형문제

31. Which is the main topic of the passage ?³¹

Injuries sometimes occur when people do not take adequate precautions with everyday activities. Although some such injuries occur because of pure carelessness or misfortune, others happen because the person did not want others to perceive him or her as too careful. For example, many people seem to avoid wearing seat belts in automobiles, helmets on bicycles and motorcycles, and life preservers in boats because such devices convey an impression of excessive cautiousness. In addition, many people seem reluctant to wear protective gear (e.g. , safety goggles, gloves, and helmets) when operating power tools or dangerous machinery because they will be viewed as nervous or extremely careful. This concern emerges at a young age; anecdotally, children as young as 6 or 7 years old are sometimes reluctant to wear knee pads and helmets when rollerskating because of what other children will

- ① Why injuries occur in everyday life
- ② The prevention and solution of injuries
- ③ The side-effects of too carefulness
- ④ The reason people avoid wearing protective gear
- ⑤ The advantage of wearing protective equipments

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

32. Which is the correct order of the three sentences after the given passage? ³²

Injuries sometimes occur when people do not take adequate precautions with everyday activities.

Although some such injuries occur because of pure carelessness or misfortune, others happen because the person did not want others to perceive him or her as too careful.

(A) This concern emerges at a young age; anecdotally, children as young as 6 or 7 years old are sometimes reluctant to wear knee pads and helmets when rollerskating because of what other children will think of them

(B) For example, many people seem to avoid wearing seat belts in automobiles, helmets on bicycles and motorcycles, and life preservers in boats because such devices convey an impression of excessive cautiousness.

(C) In addition, many people seem reluctant to wear protective gear (e.g. , safety goggles, gloves, and helmets) when operating power tools or dangerous machinery because they will be viewed as nervous or extremely careful.

- ① (A) - (C) - (B)
- ② (B) - (A) - (C)
- ③ (B) - (C) - (A)
- ④ (C) - (A) - (B)
- ⑤ (C)- (B)- (A)

33. Which of the following is suitable for the blank?³³

Injuries sometimes occur when people do not take adequate precautions with everyday activities. Although some such injuries occur because of pure carelessness or misfortune, others happen because the person

___. For example, many people seem to avoid wearing seat belts in automobiles, helmets on bicycles and motorcycles, and life preservers in boats because such devices convey an impression of excessive cautiousness. In addition, many people seem reluctant to wear protective gear (e.g. , safety goggles, gloves, and helmets) when operating power tools or dangerous machinery because they will be viewed as nervous or extremely careful. This concern emerges at a young age; anecdotally, children as young as 6 or 7 years old are sometimes reluctant to wear knee pads and helmets when rollerskating because of what

- ① wanted others to think himself brave
- ② did not allow themselves to be timid
- ③ did not want others to perceive him or her as too careful
- ④ hoped many people to be careful
- ⑤ expected him or her to be active

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

34. Which of the following is most suitable to fill in the blanks (A) and (B)?³⁴

Injuries sometimes occur when people do not take adequate precautions with everyday activities. Although some such injuries occur because of pure carelessness or misfortune, others happen because the person _____.

____. For example, many people seem to avoid wearing seat belts in automobiles, helmets on bicycles and motorcycles, and life preservers in boats because such devices convey an impression of excessive cautiousness. In addition, many people seem reluctant to wear protective gear (e.g. , safety goggles, gloves, and helmets) when operating power tools or dangerous machinery because they will be viewed as nervous or extremely careful. This concern emerges at a young age; anecdotally, children as young as 6 or 7 years old are sometimes reluctant to wear knee pads and helmets when rollerskating because of what

- ① However –Thus
- ② For example-In addition
- ③ In fact - On the other hand
- ④ However- In addition
- ⑤ For example-Thus

35. Which is the main topic of the passage ?³⁵

Injuries sometimes occur when people do not take adequate precautions with everyday activities. Although some such injuries occur because of pure carelessness or misfortune, others happen because the person did not want others to perceive him or her as too careful. For example, many people seem to avoid wearing seat belts in automobiles, helmets on bicycles and motorcycles, and life preservers in boats because such devices convey an impression of excessive cautiousness. In addition, many people seem reluctant to wear protective gear (e.g. , safety goggles, gloves, and helmets) when operating power tools or dangerous machinery because they will be viewed as nervous or extremely careful. This concern emerges at a young age; anecdotally, children as young as 6 or 7 years old are sometimes reluctant to wear knee pads and helmets when rollerskating because of

- ① The way people see children as extreme carefulness
- ② the way they are regarded as a timid boy
- ③ what adults will see them
- ④ what other children will think of them
- ⑤ The way other children will laugh at them

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

36. Choose the correct word for (A), (B), (C) respectively.³⁶

Injuries sometimes occur when people do not take adequate precautions with everyday activities. Although some such injuries occur because of pure carelessness or misfortune, others happen because the person did not want others (A) [to perceive/perceiving] him or her as too careful. For example, many people seem to avoid wearing seat belts in automobiles, helmets on bicycles and motorcycles, and life preservers in boats because such devices convey an impression of excessive cautiousness. In addition, many people seem reluctant to wear protective gear (e.g. , safety goggles, gloves, and helmets) when operating power tools or dangerous machinery because they will (B) [view/ be viewed] as nervous or extremely careful. This concern emerges at a young age; anecdotally, children as young as 6 or 7 years old are sometimes reluctant to wear knee pads and helmets when rollerskating because of (C) [what/that] other children will think of them

- ① to perceive- be viewed- that
- ② to perceive- view- that
- ③ to perceive- be viewed- what
- ④ perceiving – view – that
- ⑤ perceiving – be viewed – what

2016년 수능특강 영어 6강(변형) <http://likasuni.com>

정답

1 ③

2 ⑤

3 ③

4 ③

5 ④

6 ④

7 ④

8 ②

9 ④

10 ②

11 ⑤

12 ②

13 ③

14 ②

15 ⑤

16 ④

17 ②

18 ②

19 ⑤

20 ③

21 ④

22 ②

23 ④

24 ⑤

25 ④

26 ②

27 ③

28 ⑤

29 ②

30 ③

31 ④

32 ③

33 ③

34 ②

35 ④

36 ③